

SUMMER VIDEO STUDY: RECONCILING IMAGES

How have LGBTQ people been portrayed onscreen? How do Christians respond? Join us for fruitful, thoughtful discussion as Pastor Park and Beth Mattson co-host a bible study looking at LGBTQ life in America.

This group meets at noon in the Youth Room. Lunch is potluck style. Join us every week, or just come to the sessions that particularly interest you. Children are welcome, but parents should use their own discretion.

Sunday, July 28 – Philadelphia (PG-13, 2:05)

Tom Hanks and Denzel Washington star in this Oscar-winning 1993 movie that was one of the first mainstream films to deal with homosexuality, AIDS, and homophobia.

Sunday, August 4 – Queer Eye: God Bless Gay (TV-14, 0:51)

A team of gay men makeover a Christian woman and redecorate her church in this reality TV episode. Frank talk of how Christians have both accepted and hurt LGBTQ people.

Sunday, August 11 – The Matthew Shephard Story (TV-14, 1:34)

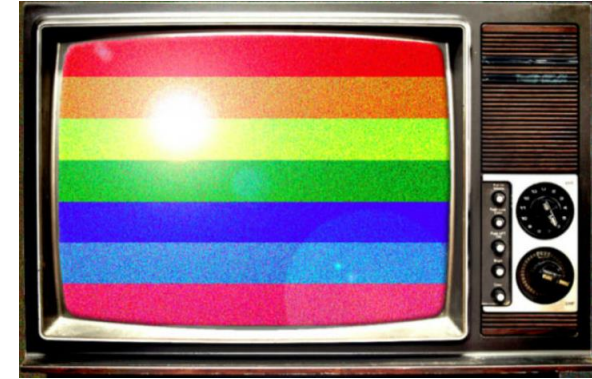

Emmy-winning documentary about Matthew Shephard, the gay teenager who was beaten and murdered in 1998. Shephard's death inspired a wave of anti-hate crime legislation in the US.

Sunday, August 18 – One Day at a Time (TV-PG, 1:30)

Award winning sitcom about a Cuban-American family showcases a variety of family reactions when the daughter comes out.

Sunday, August 25 – Nanette (unrated, 1:09)

Comedian Hannah Gadsby's breakout special is a raw, real look at drawing strength from brokenness and rebuilding oneself. Gadsby talks frankly about sexism, homophobia, and other tough topics.

SUMMER VIDEO STUDY: RECONCILING IMAGES

How have LGBTQ people been portrayed onscreen? How do Christians respond? Join us for fruitful, thoughtful discussion as Pastor Park and Beth Mattson co-host a bible study looking at LGBTQ life in America.

This group meets at noon in the Youth Room. Lunch is potluck style. Join us every week, or just come to the sessions that particularly interest you. Children are welcome, but parents should use their own discretion.

Sunday, July 28 – Philadelphia (PG-13, 2:05)

Tom Hanks and Denzel Washington star in this Oscar-winning 1993 movie that was one of the first mainstream films to deal with homosexuality, AIDS, and homophobia.

Sunday, August 4 – Queer Eye: God Bless Gay (TV-14, 0:51)

A team of gay men makeover a Christian woman and redecorate her church in this reality TV episode. Frank talk of how Christians have both accepted and hurt LGBTQ people.

Sunday, August 11 – The Matthew Shephard Story (TV-14, 1:34)

Emmy-winning documentary about Matthew Shephard, the gay teenager who was beaten and murdered in 1998. Shephard's death inspired a wave of anti-hate crime legislation in the US.

Sunday, August 18 – One Day at a Time (TV-PG, 1:30)

Award winning sitcom about a Cuban-American family showcases a variety of family reactions when the daughter comes out.

Sunday, August 25 – Nanette (unrated, 1:09)

Comedian Hannah Gadsby's breakout special is a raw, real look at drawing strength from brokenness and rebuilding oneself. Gadsby talks frankly about sexism, homophobia, and other tough topics.